The Allentown Firemen, Parade, &c. For many days past the firemen of Alexandua have been preparing for the visit of the Allentown, Pa., Volunteer Fire Department, This morning at an early hour, large numbers of people were on the streets, and the city rrosented quire a gala appearance. Many of the places of business, as well as a large number of private residences were tastefully decorated, and the strivel of the visitors was sexiculty

At ten o'eliek the visiting firemen, accompanied by a number of prominent estimas of Allentown, arrived in this city over the Buitimore and Potomse Railroad. They were met at the depot by Mayor J. T. B. ckham, Chief Engineer E. H. O'Brien, R. L. Carne, etq., app committees from the Hydraulion and Columbia Steam Fire Companies, and the Relief Hock and Ladder Company, and a number of citizens. Immediately upon disembarking from the ears, the line of pracession was formed, and the visitors, the Good Will Company, Ne. 3, in red shirts, black pants, white fire hats, and white belts, and the Columbia Company, No. 4., in blue uniforms, and black fire hate, numbering over 80 men, marshed dawn King street, headed by the Alleatowa Cornet Bard. sion House, where Mayor Beckham delivered a short address of welcome, which was most appropriately reflect to b; J. S. D llieger, (sq., of the Good Will Company, a premisent lawyer of Allentown.

The line was then broken, and the members of the two companies, a fine locking body of mon, were taken in charge by the committees from the several city fire companies.

The Good Will Steam Fire Company was organized in 1850, and numbers among its members some of the best citizens of Allentowe, Is is the possessor of one of the best and hand-somest engines in the United States. The cogibo, which arrived here Saturday night last, and a description of which was given in Mon dir's Gazette, took the prize at the Philadele phia Comennial. The officers with the come pany are: Samuel Young, president; James Recder, vice president; H. O. Keiper, forceman; Harry Meriz, engineer; Constance Knows, sent."

The Columbia Steam Fire Company, organ izid December 13, 1853, is also a company of figo standing in Alientown. The officers nocompanying it on this cocasion are: Daniel Gift, president; Harry Rhue, vice president; Amandus Burger, foreman, Thomas Frederick, assistant foremat; Allen Banmel, organica; Henry Focht, driver.

The committee of arrangements for the excarsion are: Good Will Company - E. J. Danowsky, Charles Cohn and Eagens Loyelt; Columbia Company-Bick'er Heff et, Diniel Gift and Amandus Burger, Among the prominent citizens of Allentown with the visiting tiremen are John P. Dilling r. Chi I Regine r. of the Allentown Fire Department; George Blumer, niember of the City Conned, and Chairman of the Pire Committer; T. J. Keck and lady; D. H. Wannemacker and lady; Elias Butner, Franklin Boehm, Lowis Christ, Elwin J. Soyder, Chas. Gackerbien, E. J. Danowsky, Charles Ruhe, Arthur Saeges, J. sigh Ying-

The remainder of the day, until four o'clack this afternoon, the time fixed for the parade was spent by the strangers, a courteens sat of gentlemen, in visiting the several places of interest in the city-the house where Colonel Ellsworth was killed by Jackson, in 1861, old Christ Church, the room of Alexandria Wash ington Lodge of Masons, the old Briddock house, & .

(Both of these companies, preceded by the officers named above, by their fice appearance elected considerable appliance along the route of proces ion.)

Then came the Hydranlian Steam Fice Company, 30 members, in blue uniforms under command of Samuel Tennesson, foremar. The splendidly polished engine of the Company, Wm. G. Simpson, engineer, drawn by four back horses, driven by J. Frank Taylor, was tollowed by the hose carriage, drawn by two horses, Earnest Ballenger, driver.

Next came the Relief Hock and Ladder Cempany, Park Agnew, President; R. M. Latham, foreman, 26 members in white shirts headed by the Alexandria Musical Association. The truck of the Company was covered with Last, but not by any means best, was the Columbia Steam Fire Company, No. 4, of this city, 45 members, in red shirts, 51. Mel. 130, President; R. W. Falls and R. C. Lee, Vic. Pers idents, and Geo. N. Puffcy, foreman. Heading the Company were two hule boys bearing silver torches, followed by six pipemen bearing brass pipes, each adorned with a haedsome b uquet. The engine of the company never tresented a better appearance. Its bracers shown respiendently, reflecting great credit upon the cr gineer. Loudoun Campbell. It was drawn by four fine looking horses, driven by Henry Pesay. The hese carriage was drawn by the members.

The parade was witnessed by a large coacourse of people, and the different fire compapies were greeted with appliance along the line of march.

The visiting floemen will go to Mount Vernon to-morrow morning, and upon their return towill take place. To morrow night a banquet will be given them, and Thursday morning they will return home.

POLICE NEWS .- Mayor Brekham had before him this morning a larger number of cases than for some time.

There were up for trial ten violators of the Sunday law. Three plead guilty and were fined $10 erc's, which they paid. Two stood trial and were fixed -one for selling intoxicat ing liquors on Sunday last-$10, and the other for selling sods water on the same day, $2. One case was dismissed, there being no evidecce to support the charge, and four other cases at the request of counsel, were continued. Frank Banks, Charles Minor, and Edward Houck, all colcred, for robbing the residence of Mr. B. J. Bargess Wednesday morning last. and Betsy Roy, Back's grandmother, for being concerned in the robbery, were all sent to jail for the action of grand jury of the Corporation Court.

A NEST OF THIEVES BROKEN UP .- The ar rest of Frank Banks, Charles Minor and Ed. Honek by Officers Hayes and Arnold, for robbing the residence of Mr. B. J. Bargers, Wednesday morning last, has led to the discovery of a nest of thieves. Upon searching the house of an old colored woman named Betsy Roy, the grandmother of Banks, and receiver of the stolen good, not only the gold chair belonging to Mr. Burgess, but also several articles stelen from the residence of Mr. Robert l'oriner, two yearsago, were found. Banks bas admitted being guilty of the robbery, and says the vases he got out of Mr. Portner's house were taken to Washington by his mother. All the parties were before the Mayor this merting, and Banks, Misor, Houck, and the old hag, Betsy Roy, were sent to jul for the grand jury. Susan Banks, who now lives in Washington, was locked up for further exami-
